

Islamic social communication: A Comparative Study of Muslims believes and Credence patterns in Iranian Taziye

By

Afshin Amoozadeh Lichaei and Seyed Kamaledin Shafiei

Art & Architecture Faculty, University Of Guilan Adjunct of Research Institute of Guilanology, Rasht-Iran

Abstract

Taziye is the religious performance from practiced in Iran. Origin The word Tazieh is from Arabic language and its root word is Azaa The word Taziye literally means mourning and consolation after death. "The word Taziye literally means expressions of sympathy, mourning and consolation. As a dramatic form it has its origins in the Muharram procession commemorating Hussein's martyrdom and throughout its evolution the representation of the siege and carnage at Kerbela has remained its center point. In Farsi, the word refers to mystic plays dating back to the tragic beginnings of Shiite history, with all its rudeness and bloodshed at Karbala 14 centuries ago. Another name for Taziye is Shabiyeh Gardani (portrait turn round) and Shabiyeh Khani (portrait sing) it is on the basis of story and fiction and narrative of life and tragically and event and hardship of Imam Hussein and hard time he had in Muharram (first month of Arabic calendar).

Keywords: Muharram, Taziye, expressions of sympathy, Iran